

Sales, Trading & Research Equity Sales Frankfurt Summer Internship 2013

J.P. Morgan is a leader in asset management, investment banking, and treasury and securities services. Today, we serve one of the largest set of clients in the world, including corporations, institutional investors, hedge funds, governments and affluent individuals in more than 100 countries. J.P. Morgan is part of JPMorgan Chase & Co., a leading global financial services firm with assets of $2.2 trillion.

Job Description:

Are you interested in gaining practical experience to complement your studies and gain comprehensive insights into the global financial markets? Have you always been interested in what really moves equity markets, how an IPO placement is done or just how the advisory process for institutional investors really works?

If you are interested, Equity Sales is the place to be. As part of the market operations, it belongs to the public side of the investment bank. The team is responsible for the institutional investor client base and is crucial in all equity market transactions. Salespeople speak on a day to day basis about investment ideas, news flow, research data and market activity.

Do you want to work in this fast moving environment where no day is like the day before?

Beside impressive academic qualifications and strong communication skills you need to meet the following requirements to fit into our team:

- Pen-ultimate year of studies and a financial academic background
- Strong analytical skills
- Very good team worker with a strong service attitude
- Fluency in German and English
- Fundamental knowledge of stock valuation methods
- Strong proven interest in stock markets and natural passion for equities as an asset class
- Very good computer skills
- Ability to structure problems and to work well under time pressure

Timing: June - September 2013
